

COVID-19 Vaccine Exemption Application

Purpose

This form is to be used by people seeking an exemption under the COVID-19 Vaccination policy (D2.1) requirements in the following circumstances:

- Where the person has a recognised medical contradiction to the COVID-19 vaccine
- Where the person has refused the COVID-19 vaccine on grounds of a genuinely held religious belief
- Where there is an exceptional circumstance.

In respect of each exemption application:

- Supporting evidence must be provided with each application
- Applications for exemptions will be considered on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the Synod's work health and safety duty of care as a person in control of a business or undertaking.
- Where an exemption is approved, it may be temporary, permanent, or conditional in nature
- Exemptions will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

Scope

This form applies to:

- Employees of the Queensland Synod office
- People who are engaged through a contract for the supply of services to the Synod office
- Ministry agents
- People in supply ministry

The form does not apply to:

- Volunteers of the Queensland Synod office (other than a volunteer at an early learning site).
- Lay persons employed in ministry locations, designated as appropriate for the exercise of the ministry of pastor.
- People who supply site maintenance or cleaning services under a contract for the supply of services to the Synod office (other than at an early learning site).

This form is to be read in a way that is consistent with all relevant government public health orders or legislation (Government Requirements), as introduced, amended, replaced or revoked from time to time. Given the constantly changing nature of the advice and directions if any aspect of this policy contravenes any aspect of the Government Requirements, the Government Requirements prevail.

2. Exemption sought

I am applying for an exemption based on (select all that apply)

- Medical contradiction (go to section 3.1)
- Genuinely held religious belief (go to section 3.2)
- Other exceptional circumstances (go to section 3.3)

Note that there is no requirement to complete all exemption categories in section 3.

Exemption request

2.1. Unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine due to a recognised medical contraindication to the COVID-19 vaccine

2.1.1. A person will be considered to have a medical contraindication for the purposes of applying for an exemption where they are unable to be vaccinated due to a recognised medical contraindication to the COVID-19 vaccine as outlined in a letter or copy of an Australian Immunisation Medical Exemption (IM011) form from a recognised immunisation provider, being one of the following:

2.1.1.1. a general practitioner that is vocationally registered, or a fellow of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP), or Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine (ACRRM)

2.1.1.2. a paediatrician

2.1.1.3. a public health physician

2.1.1.4. an infectious diseases physician, or

2.1.1.5. a clinical immunologist.

2.1.2. A recognised medical contraindication is limited to include circumstances where the person has a history of anaphylaxis or other recognised medical contraindication as outlined in the Australian Immunisation Handbook

I can confirm that I am unable to meet the COVID-19 vaccination requirements due to a recognised medical contraindication to the vaccine. (Tick box to confirm)

2.1.3. Evidence requirements:

2.1.3.1. A person is required to provide a medical certificate from their recognised immunisation provider certifying:

2.1.3.1.1. That the person is unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccination because they have a recognised medical contraindication to the vaccine

2.1.3.1.2. Where the medical contraindication will permanently or temporarily prevent COVID-19 vaccination

2.1.3.1.3. If the medical contraindication is temporary in nature, when the person may be able to receive the COVID-19 vaccination

2.1.3.2. Alternatively, a person can provide a copy of an Australian Immunisation Medical Exemption (IM011) form completed by a recognised immunisation provider.

I have attached a copy of the above documentation as evidence. (Tick box to confirm)

2.2. Unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine due to a genuinely held religious belief

2.2.1. A person will be considered to have a genuinely held religious belief for the purposes of applying for an exemption where they are able to provide a letter from a religious leader or official specifying:

2.2.1.1. The person has a deeply held religious belief such that the person is unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine; and

2.2.1.2. A reference to a doctrine or rule of the religion that would apply to the deeply held religious belief such that a person is unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine; and

2.2.1.3. Their affiliation or connection to the religious group.

I can confirm that I am unable to meet the COVID-19 vaccination requirements due to a genuinely held religious belief. (Tick box to confirm)

2.2.2. Evidence requirements:

2.2.2.1. A person is required to provide a letter from a religious leader or official certifying that:

2.2.2.1.1. The person has a deeply held religious belief such that the person is unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine; and

2.2.2.1.2. A reference to a doctrine or rule of the religion that would apply to the deeply held religious belief such that a person is unable to receive any COVID-19 vaccine; and

2.2.2.1.3. Their affiliation or connection to the religious group.

I have attached a copy of the above documentation as evidence. (Tick box to confirm)

2.3. Other exceptional circumstances

2.3.1. In extremely limited circumstances, an exemption may be granted where a person can demonstrate other exceptional circumstances which preclude the person from meeting the COVID-19 vaccine requirements. In this circumstance:

2.3.1.1. Vaccine hesitancy and conscientious objection, by themselves, are not considered exceptional circumstances

2.3.1.2. Some other extenuating circumstance must exist

2.3.2. Where this can be demonstrated, the person's circumstances will be considered on an individual basis as outlined in the COVID-19 Vaccination procedure (D2.1.1).

2.3.3. Evidence requirements:

2.3.3.1. A person is required to provide a letter briefly detailing the extenuating circumstances which preclude them from meeting the COVID-19 vaccination.

2.3.3.2. If the extenuating circumstance is temporary in nature, indicate when you are able to receive the COVID-19 vaccination.

I have attached a document as evidence of my extenuating circumstances. (Tick box to confirm)
