

Laidley congregation is seeking a full-time minister. With already established connections with young families in the area and op shop located in the centre of the township, the congregation is looking for the right person to join them on the next steps of becoming more mission focussed. Laidley is wonderful rural community close to Ipswich and an hour from Brisbane.

Please submit an expression of interest to the Secretary of Placements Committee placements@ucaqld.com.au by COB Monday 9th December 2024.
